Greetings!

We are excited to host our upcoming Twitter Chat on Tuesday, June 30 and we hope you can join us! “The Other ‘M’ in MCH” chat will follow a question and answer format. We will ask a series of questions using the hashtag #MHM2020Chat. Please RSVP at <https://bit.ly/MHMChat2020> so we know you’ll be there.

Please consider posting links, resources and tagging other providers and organizations. To engage, please post your answer and include #MHM2020Chat in your response. We will be posting the questions using a Q1 format. Please use a standard A1 format for your answers and remember to use the #MHM2020Chat hashtag.

EXAMPLE:

Q1: Who do we have participating today? #MHM2020Chat

A1: My name is Joe and I am with AMCHP. #MHM2020Chat

*Note: There is a six-minute period between most questions. Please use this time to submit responses.

QUESTIONS (all times listed below are EST):

- Q1 (1:00-1:04pm): Who do we have participating today and why are you joining this #MHM2020Chat?
- Q2 (1:05-1:11pm): How are fathers and father figures vital for their families and communities? #MHM2020Chat
- Q3 (1:12-1:18pm): What source(s) have you used to develop a definition and/or understanding of the role of fathers in your work? #MHM2020Chat
- Q4 (1:19-1:25pm): How have the roles of fathers changed over the years that requires greater attention in the MCH world? #MHM2020Chat
- Q5 (1:26-1:32pm): Why should the field of MCH engage adolescent males and fathers/men in their own health care and the health of women and children, with specific intention around men with marginalized identities? #MHM2020Chat
- Q6 (1:33-1:39pm): What are ways you’ve seen MCH policies and programs fail to engage men, in particular men of color? #MHM2020Chat
- Q7 (1:40-1:46pm): What health narratives about men of color should the MCH field lift up? How can the field of MCH promote these positive narratives? #MHM2020Chat

- Q8 (1:47-1:53pm): What structural changes would you like to see in the MCH field and institutions typically engaged in MCH to be more inclusive and engaging of adolescent males and men/fathers? #MHM2020Chat
- Q9 (1:54-1:59pm): What programs have you previously heard of or learned about today that you'd like to share here or with your colleagues? Be sure to tag them! Why is their work so important? #MHM2020Chat
- Closing/final thoughts (1:59-2:00pm): We hope that all of you have enjoyed this #MHM2020Chat! Thank you for sharing your thoughts and resources and we look forward to continuing this conversation on male engagement throughout the year via @AMCHP_GrowingUp. Please feel free to share any last thoughts and stay well!
